Peach Announces Locations of Check-in Facilities

- Kansai International Airport will be utilizing the "Aero Plaza" on the 2nd floor
- Last call for check-in will be 30 minutes before take-off

OSAKA February 16, 2012 – Peach Aviation announced today the location of check-in counters at corresponding airports for Osaka (Kansai) – Sapporo (Shin-Chitose) and Osaka (Kansai) - Fukuoka routes set to begin on March 1.

Prior to the special LCC terminal planned to launch in 2012's Autumn, Peach will utilize an area within Kansai International Airport called "Aero Plaza" for the check-in counter. Automatic check-in machines will be available at airports with corresponding flight destinations for fast, easy check-ins. Peach, as Japan's first official LCC airline, is planning to provide a more simple, easy-to-navigate check-in area compared to existing airlines.

Additionally, last call for check-in will be 30 minutes before take-off. For check-in locations at corresponding airports, refer to the information below. Along with providing maps for check-in locations on the official Peach website, Peach is in the midst of working with Kansai International airport and corresponding transportation facilities to align efforts to provide the best on-the-ground quality service to Peach Aviation users in order to provide up-to-date maps, check-in and flight information.
