

Peach to Increase Number of Flights on Osaka (Kansai) – Taipei (Taoyuan) Route

TOKYO June 25, 2015 - Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director & CEO: Shinichi Inoue) announced today that it will increase its number of flights serviced between Osaka (Kansai) and Taipei (Taoyuan).

Since the start of services on October 16, 2012, some 600,000 passengers have flown on the Osaka (Kansai) – Taipei (Taoyuan) route, and it is one of the most popular routes offered by Peach. The increase from 14 to 20 flights weekly will boost the options that are offered to customers and further enhance convenience.

In addition, Peach will open a Tokyo (Haneda) – Taipei (Taoyuan) route on August 8, which will increase the number of routes that connect Japan and Taiwan to three, departing from and arriving at Osaka (Kansai), Okinawa (Naha), and Tokyo (Haneda).

Being faithful to our motto, "Peach flies and changes lifestyles," we will continue to aggressively develop new routes and generate new aviation demand. The aim is to serve as a bridge which promotes the exchange of people, ideas, information across Asia.
