

Peach to Open Haneda/Seoul (Incheon) Route, Increase Number of Flights on Kansai/Seoul (Incheon) Route

Opening a second route to and from Haneda to boost access from the capital

OSAKA & TOKYO 11 Nov, 2015 - Peach Aviation Ltd. ("Peach", CEO: Shinichi Inoue) announced today that it will open a Tokyo (Haneda) – Seoul (Incheon) route and also increase the number of flights on its Osaka (Kansai) – Seoul (Incheon) route.

The Tokyo (Haneda) – Seoul (Incheon) route will be Peach's second route departing from and arriving in Haneda following the Tokyo (Haneda) – Taipei (Taoyuan) route which opened on August 8 this year. Services will start on February 5 * with seven round-trip flights each week. Peach had decided to open this route upon receiving high demand for a new international route from the capital after the start of services on the Tokyo (Haneda) – Taipei (Taoyuan) route.

Beginning on February 5, Peach will also increase its number of flights between Osaka (Kansai) and Seoul (Incheon) by an additional round-trip each day to make its current three round-trips daily to four.

Tickets for flights on the Tokyo (Haneda) – Seoul (Incheon) route will go on sale starting at 15:00 November 18, and tickets for the Osaka (Kansai) – Seoul (Incheon) route will be sold from 15:00 November 11.

"Flying Peach can change lifestyles." Peach will continue to aggressively develop new routes, generate new aviation demand, and aim to become a bridge that can deepen exchanges between people, objects, and events beyond borders.
