Call Begins for New Cabin Attendants to Join Peach
An Audition to Invite Colleagues to Create Innovation in the Sky

- Scheduled to hire 70 cabin attendants
- Entries due by October 10, 2013
- People looking for self-realization will be welcomed

Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director & CEO: Shinichi Inoue, Head office: Izumisano-shi, Osaka) announced today that it had started its call for new cabin attendants to join the company after March 2014.

At Peach, cabin attendants have been hired three times to date. A year and a half has passed since the start of its services in 2012, and the company is preparing to enter into a period of full-fledged growth. The call for cabin attendants at this time is, in essence, Peach's "audition" for "talent" to create innovation in the skies of Japan and Asia. We look forward to receiving entries from those who are not bound by precedent, who can make proactive challenges with passion in whatever they do.

Entries are due by October 10 and details are as follows. Please see the recruiting information on the Peach website for further information.

Job type:	Cabin attendant
Description of work:	Duties as cabin attendant and other incidental duties
Scheduled number of hires：	70
Place of work:	Osaka, Japan (Kansai International Airport)
