Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director & CEO: Shinichi Inoue, Head office: Izumisano-shi, Osaka) announced today its schedule for winter 2013 (October 27, 2013, to March 29, 2014).

Peach will increase the number of flights on its first Tokyo metropolitan route by a third on the Osaka (Kansai) – Tokyo (Narita) route, which is scheduled to begin operations on October 27, to three round-trip flights (6 flights total) from January 10, 2014. Peach will also double the number of flights on its Osaka (Kansai) – Hong Kong route by one round-trip flight per day to two round trip flights (4 flights total) starting November 1, 2013 due to strong forward bookings.

The Osaka (Kansai) – Tokyo (Narita) service, which is scheduled to begin operations on October 27, has received an unexpectedly high number of reservations, and demand is expected to remain high, so we have decided to add a mid-day flight (one round trip flight, 2 flights total) during the day to the currently planned morning and evening flights.

Peach's Hong Kong routes have been very popular routes since their launch, used not only by Japanese passengers but also many passengers from Hong Kong. The increased flights are in response to high demand, and we are also starting operation of a frequently requested daytime flight between Osaka (Kansai) and Hong Kong.

In addition to the winter 2013 schedule flights already on sale, Peach will begin sales for all flights other than flights on the Osaka (Kansai) – Busan routes from 14:00 on September 6. Busan flights will be available for sale soon.

Details regarding fares and dates are shown below. Please visit the Peach website (www.flypeach.com) to make reservations.
