Exclusive In-Flight Sales Start for "KEISEI SKYLINER & METRO PASS" Easier access from Narita Airport to central Tokyo!

- Sales start with opening of Osaka (Kansai) – Tokyo (Narita) route on October 27
- Great deals for combinations of "Skyliner" and "Tokyo Metro" tickets to be sold in-flights
- The first initiative by an airline flying in to Narita Airport

Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director & CEO: Shinichi Inoue, Head office: Izumisano-shi, Osaka), Keisei Electric Railway Co., Ltd. (Keisei Railway; headquarters: Ichikawa-shi, Chiba prefecture; President: Norio Saegusa), and Tokyo Metro Co., Ltd. (Tokyo Metro; headquarters: Taito-ku, Tokyo; President: Yoshimitsu Oku) announced today that in line with the opening of Peach's Osaka (Kansai) to Tokyo (Narita) route on October 27, 2013, in-flight sales will get underway for "KEISEI SKYLINER & METRO PASSES".

These tickets are a great deal, combining tickets for the rapid, comfortable "Skyliner" that links Narita Airport with the central part of Tokyo, with a "one-day" or "two-day pass" for the Tokyo Metro, the convenient subway system for city sightseeing around the capital.

The "KEISEI SKYLINER & METRO PASSES" are being offered for the reasonable prices of 2,600 yen for a one-way SKYLINER ticket and one-day Tokyo Metro pass, a 510 yen discount, or 4,880 yen for a pass that includes a round-trip SKYLINER ticket and two-day Tokyo Metro pass, which is 1,340 yen off the usual rates.

The "KEISEI SKYLINER & METRO PASSES" will only be available aboard Peach flights, and will be sold on all flights bound for Tokyo (Narita). This is the first time that discount rail tickets are being sold on a regular domestic flight to Narita Airport, and is the second such type for Peach, following the popular "Peach Namba tickets".

Offering smooth, comfortable access from the airport to the city center, together with unlimited use of the 179 stations on the nine routes operated by Tokyo Metro, Peach, Keisei Railway, and Tokyo Metro look forward to boosting the level of convenience for their customers who are planning on visiting Tokyo.
