Peach Aviation Limited (Peach; Representative Director & CEO: Shinichi Inoue, Head office: Izumisano-shi, Osaka), announced today that in addition to its flights between Osaka (Kansai) and Sapporo (Shin-Chitose), Sendai, Tokyo (Narita), Matsuyama, Fukuoka, and the Nagasaki routes currently being sold, it had determined its 2014 summer timetable (March 30 – October 25, 2014) for routes between Osaka (Kansai) and Kagoshima, Okinawa (Naha), and Ishigaki, as well as those flying between Okinawa (Naha) and Ishigaki, and will commence sales.

In addition, Peach will also open a new route between Fukuoka and Okinawa (Naha), flying one round-trip (two flights) daily starting Saturday, July 19, which will also become available for sale. With the start of services for this new route, Peach’s flights arriving and departing from Naha Airport, excluding the Osaka (Kansai) route, will become three routes: those between Okinawa (Naha) and Ishigaki, and the Taipei route.

Along with the opening of the new Fukuoka – Okinawa (Naha) route, Naha Airport will also become Peach’s second hub after Kansai International Airport.

Peach currently operates nine domestic routes and six international routes, and will open a route between Osaka (Kansai) and Matsuyama on February 1. Peach will continue to generate new movements through further steps in its aggressive development of routes and its steady cultivation of new demand for low-fare air travel.
