

Operation of MM252, April 28, 2014

At around 11:47am on April 28, 2014, MM252 (from Ishigaki Airport to Naha Airport) flew below normal approach letdown route during final approach for landing to Naha Airport.

Peach Aviation Limited (Peach) extends its sincere apologies for any inconvenience and anxiety caused to customers onboard and parties concerned.

Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism (MLIT) has judged this case as a serious incident, and Japan Transport Safety Board (JTSB) will investigate detail of cause.

Peach will fully cooperate with investigation by JTSB and take necessary measures for preventing similar cases.

Flight Number	Number of onboard passengers	Number of cockpit crew	Number of cabin crew	Aircraft registration number	Type of aircraft
MM252	53 (including 1 infant)	2	4	JA802P	Airus A320 (180 seater)

Place of Departure	Actual Departure Time	Place of Arrival	Actual Arrival Time
Ishigaki	10:52 (Scheduled departure Time = 10:35)	Naha	12:10 (Scheduled arrival Time = 11:40)

Information related to the case:

Date, Time	April 28, 2014, around 11:47 a.m.
Injury	None
Event	Flew below normal approach letdown route during final approach for landing to Naha airport.
Actions to be taken	Fully cooperate with Japan Transport Safety Board and implement necessary measures for preventing similar cases.

Following flights were canceled due to inspection of concerned aircraft.

- MM107 Osaka (Kansai)-Sapporo (Shin Chitose)
- MM108 Sapporo (Shin Chitose) – Osaka (Kansai)
- MM111 Osaka (Kansai) – Tokyo (Narita)
- MM112 Tokyo (Narita) – Osaka (Kansai)

Other flights might possibly be canceled in addition to the above.